

Philadelphia, Jan. 19th, 1839

To Anne W. Weston:

Esteemed Friend:

In reply to your letter, I must say that I really feel ashamed that your book was so long delayed in this city. I thought it had been forwarded long ago, as C. C. Murligh undertook to circulate it and then send it to you. I gave it into his hands as soon as he came to the city. Friend Whittier informs me that it has been sent, by way of Lynn, ~~and probably you~~ by the wife of Joshua C. Oliver of this city. Probably you will have received it, before the receipt of this.

The delay in answering your letter must be ascribed to my absence from the city, as I have changed my business and am now engaged in teaching school about 5 miles from Philadelphia.

Please have my name placed upon the list of subscribers to the Non-Resistant.

Respectfully
L. C. Evans

[Faint, illegible handwriting visible through the paper.]

Anne W. Weston
Care of J. Knapp
25 Cornhill
Pleasures of S. D. Hastings Boston

Jan 19. 1839
L. E. Guinn